

KEMPER is an internationally positioned manufacturer regarding the area of metal manufacturing. In the areas of extraction and filter facilities as well as extraction tables for the metal manufacturing industry KEMPER is the worldwide market leader.

Modern future orientated production employing the newest standards is a substantial aspect of KEMPER. Considering quality management criteria insures high-class production. Flexibility, local presence to the customers and a top service are demanded by the market. At a national level the business location in Vreden takes care that these demands are met. The expertise of the business location in Vreden lies in the planning, development and quality assurance of all KEMPER products. All national and international strategic decisions regarding sales and marketing are also made in Vreden.